“ Sugar and Poncho were some of my favorite people. Sugar always had a sweet word and never complained. I was honored to know them for over 40 years! I thank God that he let us have Sugar for the long time she was here. She and Poncho touched so many lives. Heaven is fuller because of their influence in the lives of so many.

“ Our world is a little dimmer without Sugar but what joyful memories radiate for the many lives she touched over her life. A life founded on love to all through selfless service and kindness. Sugar’s shining example of Christian Love continues through the lives of the people she touched: family, friends and community. Congratulations Sugar on your ‘Graduation Day’ and for a life well lived.

“ My heart hurts so much for the loss of this beautiful lady, but she was ready to see Poncho. Sugar was one of the sweetest, kindest ladies I will ever meet. We had so much fun discussing Hannah Grace and Jordyn. Sugar was so loved and will be missed. I can see the smile on her face as Poncho reaches out his hand to welcome her home.

“ What an incredible lady! Her and Poncho were such cheerleaders, ambassadors and workers for our community, volunteering everywhere possible. They will be missed by the family but also by a multitude of people in Huntsville and beyond. My heart and prayers go out to you during this time. Now her and Poncho can be together again and I am sure he is saying....TOGETHERNESS ONE MORE TIME!

“ Sugar will be missed. She was a precious lady with a huge heart! I loved her & all of her family. I had the pleasure of working with her son when I was a loan officer & he did appraisals for me; her daughter in love when I started working for TDCJ. I was a room mother to her oldest grandson. I hired Bryan to work for me at TDCJ HR. Poncho would let my oldest son borrow a “Santa” suit when my kids were young. The oldest dressed up as Santa & the other 3 as elves. They gave out candy canes in front of our house to people driving by to see Christmas decorations. I know Poncho & Sugar are rejoicing & praising God together. They will both be missed.
