

Herman Jalifi

October 30, 1939 - April 10, 2025

Herman Jalifi, a devoted family man, proud veteran and respected pillar of his community, passed away peacefully surrounded by family, on April 10, 2025. Born on October 30, 1939, in Mercedes, Texas, to Henriqueta Gonzalez Jalifi and Henry Jalifi, Herman was a man whose life was deeply rooted in the values of faith, family, and honor. After graduating, he proudly served his country in the United States Army during the Vietnam War—an experience that shaped his resilient spirit and unwavering dedication to those he loved. Family meant everything to Herman, and his life was a testament to that love.

He is survived by his loving wife, Maria de Jesus Ortiz Jalifi, who he met in Harlingen, TX while she worked as a waitress. Her well-kept nails complimented her beauty and caught Herman's attention. His love for her began there & remained strong throughout their many years together. As a final testament of his love for her, he waited to take his final breath until three days after her recent birthday on April 7, 2025.

A proud father, grandfather, and great-grandfather, Herman's love had no limits. He treated everyone with kindness and respect and always saw the good in people—especially the teens he worked with at HISD. They held a special place in his heart and he saw them as extended grandchildren—offering advice and genuinely wanting them to succeed in life. He was a great listener, and as stated by a former co-worker, had a “magic touch” when it came to printers. Herman could fix anything & made those around him feel valued. His steady presence and deep love will live on through the many lives he touched.

Herman was also a funny and lighthearted person. He cheered on the Dallas Cowboys, (despite their outcome), enjoyed hot dogs, sweets, Dr. Pepper & didn't shy away from a shot of tequila every now and then. He loved to sing, especially to his wife, dancing (many witnessed his famous chicken dance) and enjoyed tax season! He spent many years as a tax preparer and notary working out of his home, and helped many community members with translation of legal documents.

Herman's legacy of love, strength, and service continues through his wife, siblings, children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and all who were blessed to know him. Herman was deeply respected, greatly loved, and will never be forgotten. He is finally in his resting place, at his "bello hogar, Más allá del sol."

Herman Jalifi, un devoto hombre de familia, orgulloso veterano y respetado pilar de su comunidad, falleció tranquilamente rodeado de su familia el 10 de abril de 2025. Nacido el 30 de octubre de 1939 en Mercedes, Texas, hijo de Henriqueta González Jalifi y Henry Jalifi, Herman era un hombre que vivía guiado por la fe, el cariño por su familia y el respeto al honor. Después de graduarse, sirvió con orgullo a su país en el ejército de los Estados Unidos durante la Guerra de Vietnam, una experiencia que moldeó su espíritu resiliente y su inquebrantable dedicación a sus seres queridos. La familia lo era todo para Herman y su vida era un testimonio de ese amor.

Le sobrevive su amada esposa, María de Jesús Ortiz Jalifi, a quien conoció en Harlingen, TX mientras ella trabajaba como mesera. Sus uñas bien cuidadas complementaron su belleza y llamaron la atención de Herman. Su amor por ella comenzó allí y se mantuvo fuerte durante los muchos años que estuvieron juntos. Como testimonio final de su amor por ella, esperó para tomar su último aliento hasta tres días después de su reciente cumpleaños, el 7 de abril de 2025.

Orgullosa padre, abuelo y bisabuelo, el amor de Herman no tenía límites. Trataba a todos con amabilidad y respeto y siempre veía lo bueno en las personas, especialmente en los adolescentes con los que trabajaba en HISD. Ocupaban un lugar especial en su corazón y los veía como nietos extendidos que ofrecían consejos y deseaban genuinamente que tuvieran éxito en la vida. Sabía escuchar y, como afirmó un antiguo compañero de trabajo, tenía un “toque mágico” cuando se trataba de impresoras. Herman podía arreglar cualquier cosa y hacer que quienes lo rodeaban se sintieran valorados. Su presencia constante y su profundo amor perdurarán a través de las muchas vidas que tocó.

Herman también era una persona divertida y alegre. Animó a los Dallas Cowboys (a pesar de sus resultados), disfrutó de los hot dogs, los dulces, el Dr. Pepper y no rechazaba un trago de tequila de vez en cuando. Le encantaba cantar, especialmente a su esposa, bailar (muchos presenciaron su famoso baile de la gallina) y ¡disfrutaba de la temporada de impuestos! Pasó muchos años como preparador de impuestos y notario trabajando desde su casa y ayudó a muchos miembros de la comunidad con la traducción de documentos legales.

El legado de amor, fortaleza y servicio de Herman continúa a través de su esposa, hermanos, hijos, nietos, bisnietos y todos los que tuvieron la suerte de conocerlo. Herman fue profundamente respetado, muy amado y nunca será olvidado. Finalmente se encuentra en su lugar de descanso, en su “bello hogar, Más allá del sol”.
