“ What a woman!! I met Hurlene back in the early 90's. She was one of my customers. It was amazing all that she accomplished as a woman before most women were in leadership rolls in the work place. The many different types of businesses and investments she was involved in, forced her to learn about so many things. I always admired her strong sense of ethics and fairness when dealing with other people. She and Mr. Martin were two peas in a pod when it came to their ethics and sense of right and wrong. If there was ever gray, they would take the high road and whatever burden came from that, instead of letting someone else take a loss. She was very transparent in her opinions and I could rely on her to help me with my hard decisions. I'm a better man for having known her and she will be missed.
