“ Glenn and family:
I regret that Linda and I just learned about the passing of your mother. Although we did not know your mother directly, we know her through the character of her sons. That speaks volumes not only about her influence on your lives but her influence that you pass along to your family members. Please accept our condolences as you celebrate her life and mourn her death.

“ Glenn, your Mom was a good woman. She was always happy to see you, really interested in what was going on, and ready to help if you needed it. She was a loving wife, Mom and Grandmother. She saw the good in everyone and had a ready laugh. She will be missed by the many of whose lives she touched.
