She was a loving Sister, Aunt and friend and will always be remembered for her loving heart, outgoing personality and the compassion and love she had for all the kids that she came across. She was always there to lend a helping hand with everyone's kids and in some ways she was like a second mother to many of them. There wasn't a day you couldn't count on her to be right beside you helping. Sami had a passion for reading and telling memories and stories of her life experiences to all. She loved helping anyone and would always put them before herself. With the outpouring of love she showed it is no wonder that she will be greatly missed by many.

“ Aunt Sam..... I have so many memories of us hanging around when we were little. The sleepovers we would have and the stories you would tell us before we went to bed. I remember the ketchup and mustard fight you and aunt Tina. Lolbut tía I also remember your beautiful smile and infectious laughter. I remember you and how wonderful you were with kids and how you always took time to see me and my family every time went your way for a visit. I love you and mourn your passing tía. Rest In Peace Aunt Sam. You will be truly missed.
