“ After my family moved to Huntsville in 1967, we soon became friends with James and Irmadene and Jimmie. We spent many enjoyable meals and trips to Shepard, Tx to listen to live country music. Those were fun times. In the last few years I looked forward to seeing her in the gift shop or dining room at the hospital. She was always the same sweet woman we knew years ago. I know she is happy to be reunited with James, Jimmie and her mom and brother-in-law, Clyde. It has to be a wonderful reunion being with all of her loved ones again. I know I will keep expecting to run into her at the hospital.

“ I met Irmadene when she came to the Benefit Office at Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. She was the sweetest, kindest lady I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. Although our paths were separated at the time of our retirements, I never forgot her. She will be tremendously missed. She is now in Heaven and she has found her blessed hope. I pray for the family for strength and comfort at this very trying time. Irmadene, I love you!

“ Irmadene was a very kind and sweet lady. She always looked liked she just walked out of a beauty shop. I met Irmadene through a mutual friend, Margie Hill. They both retired from Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. After the loss of both of their husbands, Irmadene and Margie spent a lot of time together. They both loved to do for others. They both loved to go out to eat. They were so good about always coming to all of my childrens' birthday parties and graduation parties. They were such wonderful friends. It was always so much fun to be around both of them. After Margie's passing, Irmadene would still stop by or call. Irmadene was also a wonderful neighbor to me. She will be greatly missed. I know Irmadene is happy to be in Heaven with her husband, son, other relatives and her dear friend Margie. I will miss her.
