When Jason told us of your loss on Friday, I said a prayer for your family to find peace. We know words do not bring much comfort at this time. Praying the family finds peace with knowing he is healed and enjoying his time with our Lord and Savior.*

“ We are so very sorry for the loss of your father. We understand the sadness you feel during this time. However if your father had the option to stay on this earth, or stay in Heaven you know he would stay in Heaven.

He has just changed his address.
