“ Family, we are sorry to hear of your loss. May the memories of the times you shared together bring you comfort. May God, the father of tender mercies, comfort and sustain your family to get through not only this day, but many others to come (2 Cor. 1:3,4).

“ My condolences to the Cole families. I was sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one. Some Bible scriptures that have helped me during times of loss include Isaiah 26:19 and Psalm 37:29 which state in part: "Your dead ones will live...They will rise up." And the Bible also says: "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it." Therefore the Bible promises that there will be a time when we may be reunited with our loved ones lost in death by means of an earthly resurrection. This is further confirmed by John 5:28,28 which says: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." This is possible thanks to Jesus Christ's ransom sacrifice. Thus we have a genuine hope of everlasting life in a world without wickedness. i hope these scriptures will be of some comfort to you. “ To the Family of JB:

Mary and I extend you our most heartfelt condolences. JB and Nedra were very, very special people that we were proud and blessed to have as friends, and we will always cherish the great memories we have of them.

We know there are no words we can say or deeds we can do to lessen the pain of your loss, but it is our sincere hope that it will be of at least some comfort for you to know that we, like all the many others that had the privilege of having JB as a friend and/or mentor, are with you in heart, mind, spirit and prayer. God bless you, and may your neverending love and everlasting memories of JB serve to help you move on with making the very most of every day of your lives as soon as you can --- just the way we know JB would want you to!
