

Jacquelyn P Churchill

July 27, 1943 - November 21, 2022

Jacquelyn "Jackie" Phillips Churchill, born July 27, 1943 in Odessa, Texas was welcomed home by our Heavenly Father and reunited with her late husband, Everett on November 21, 2022. She is also preceded in death by her father and mother, William "Phil" and Ruth Phillips, brother Buddy, and sisters Anna and Joyce.

Jackie is survived by her son William "Bill" Glazier and his wife Kelley, daughter Dawn Churchill, sister Billye Swanson and her husband Dan, and brother Joe Phillips and his wife Kelley. Jackie also had four grandchildren, Wyatt, Madisen, Ashleigh, Joshua, as well as four great grandchildren, all of which she truly loved. In addition, she had three nieces and two nephews whom she loved as her own.

Jackie was an avid traveler. She loved going to bible conferences with friends or hopping in her car and visiting her relatives and friends. Jackie was always on the go, never sitting still for too long. In the 90's, Jackie and Everett became foster parents and took in over 40 foster children during that time. Many of which still visited her over the years. She was a faithful Christian and the family takes joy in knowing that she is rejoicing with her Lord.

A memorial service honoring Jackie's life will be held at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home, 10129 W. FM 1097 in Willis, Texas on December 1, 2022 from 4-7pm.
