

Jade Lynn Seibert

March 30, 1951 - October 3, 2023

Jade Lynn Seibert was born on March 30, 1951 to parents Willam Edward "Babe" Cooksey and Lois Barnett Cooksey in Huntsville, Texas. Jade was one of the funniest, most magically creative people you'd ever come across. With deadpan wit and an eye roll, she never ceased to fill a room with laughter—even in dark moments. A talented storyteller, her imagination knew no bounds. She could make the most delicately beautiful desserts, heaped with whipped cream or adorned with sculptured pie crust on top to follow a dinner fit for royalty. She could create a prom dress or Halloween costume from thin air and make anything more stunning and opulent with her creative ingenuity. Always the historian, Jade liked collecting and finding special trinkets from times past, knowing their purpose and value, appreciating all forms of art, craft, literature, and music. Also, she could have easily won on Jeopardy, and no one could beat her at Scrabble. Her beautifully open and loving heart delighted in spoiling children and pets at every opportunity, as well as advocating for social justice. Free from the earthly bonds of her body and mind, Jade's glorious spirit ascended to the heavens on October 3, 2023.

Jade is survived by her husband Mike Seibert; daughter Britta Olivarez & husband Frank; son Mikey Seibert; grandchildren Matthew Bennett & wife Candice, Miles Seibert, Ruby Seibert, Frankie Olivarez, Emma Olivarez; great grandchildren Stanley Bennett and Avery Bennett. She is also survived by her brother Wyatt Cooksey and wife Elizabeth; nieces Kasey Marsh and husband

Jack, Erin McCullar and husband Anthony, and Katie & Ashley Cooksey.

She was preceded in death by her grandson Jake Bennett; her parents, Babe & Lois Cooksey; brother Bill "Cookie" Cooksey and numerous cousins, aunts, uncles, and grandparents.

A memorial service will be held on Monday October 9, 2023 at 1:00 PM at Oakhurst Full Gospel Church in Oakhurst, Texas. Memorial condolences to the family may be made at www.shmfh.com.

“ Jade and I had a special connection from day 1. She was so incredibly funny. We had many shared interests including art and the world's beauty. I'm an artist who had to be trained. Jade had more natural creativity and talent than I could have ever asked. May the small grove of trees planted in your name grow tall and strong and bring beauty to our world for centuries to come. Job well done, Girl! Rest peacefully now, Jade.

“ I'm lucky to have gotten about 1/4 of her artistic ability. She was always there when I needed her. I don't know what we will do for Thanksgiving dressing now because nobody makes it as good as she did. All the little things that only she could do or make, her knowledge of just about anything you asked her, her patience with the kiddos, all of it... I will miss every single day. We love you mom. ❤️

“ She taught me how to cook and that it was ok to be myself, no matter who that person was. She was kind, loving and full of knowledge of all sorts. The summers I got to spend with her will always be some of my favorite memories. She was truly a magnificent woman and the little life lessons she shared helped me become the person I am today.
