Bubba was a devoted father and was looking forward to the birth of his second son. He accepted Christ as his Savior and followed that conviction in baptism at North Side Baptist Church. He, Ashley, and John Wayne made Cook Springs Baptist Church their church family home. He was a graduate of Huntsville High School Class of 1998. Bubba was employed by TJ Burdett & Son.

Bubba loved the outdoors, especially fishing, hunting, and working with horses. He grew up working on the family ranch. This gave him the opportunity to be outdoors building fences, mowing yards, doing pasture work and other activities on the ranch. He was a huge NASCAR Fan of #8 and even has the NASCAR Lap Music as his ring-tone. Bubba will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him.

Services will be held at 2:00 pm Wednesday, February 6, 2008 at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home. Interment will follow in the Jozey Cemetery in Madison County. Family visitation will be Tuesday, February 5, 2008 from 5:00-8:00PM at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home.

“ Ashley, the death of you husband hits home. I lost my husband when I was 22 and he was 23. We didn't have kids yet, but it was still so hard. I eventually remarried and now I do have 2 young children of my own and I can't even begin to place myself in your shoes if they were to ever lose their father. I don't know you and you don't know me, but you will be in my prayers every night for a long time to come. God WILL pull you through this most sorrowful time in your life. Karen
