

James Cornett

August 4, 1930 - September 12, 2004

James Monroe Cornett, Jr. was born August 4, 1930 in Houston, Texas. He passed from this life September 12, 2004 in Conroe, Texas after a lengthy battle with leukemia. "Jimmy" was preceded in death by his parents James Monroe Cornett, Sr. and Jo Ann Vick Cornett Lombardi, his grandparents John Thomas "Jack" Vick and Elsie Belle Poole Vick and his wife Jerry Lynn Cornett. He is survived by a brother Joe Francisco Lombardi, Jr. and wife Sherri of Copperas Cove, Texas and a step-daughter Chris Pirlo and family of Roy, Washington. Jim was a graduate of Ball High School in Galveston, Texas. He worked for 32 years for the Galveston Wharves Railroad at the Port of Galveston. He was a 30 year member of the United Transportation Union. Jim served for many years with the National Guard and was a Merchant Mariner with the United States Coast Guard at Galveston where he held the title of Ordinary Seaman Wiper, Steward's Department. He was a longtime resident of New Waverly, and his resting place will be by his mother at the East Sandy Cemetery under the direction of Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

“ James Cornett

---

November 15, 2022 at 08:33 PM