“ I was sad to here of your loss. I first had Dr. Gilmore as a teacher in 1967-1969 and then again in the early 70's when I got my MBA. He was a great teacher and a wonderful person. He would always take time to talk to you and help you with any problems. He had a way about him that made it easy to learn what he was teaching. If only all teachers were like him it would be great. “ My name is Jimmy Rasmussen and I had the pleasure of being his student and working for Dr. Gilmore in the mid 70's as a graduate assistant and full-time instructor.

I always found Dr. Gilmore to be a very kind and caring man. He loved his students and knew all of their names by the second day of class. He was always the ultimate professional and every student could not help but be influenced by the way he went about his work.

My sincere condolences to the family of Dr. Gilmore. He was a great man.

“ As a young business student entering Sam Houston in the fall semester of 1972, Dr. Gilmore left a very lasting impression on myself. Dr. Gilmore was the epitome of a college professor. Dr. Gilmore offered students his educational knowledge, while having the ability to relate to students, and due to his presence, seemed to command the respect of all. In closing, we offer our condolences to his immediate family and friends.

“ To the family of Dr. James Gilmore:

When I think of my years at SHSU, I always think of Dr. Gilmore. If it was not for his kind nature and assistance, I would never have finished my education.

When I shook his hand to receive my diploma, he quietly said my name and smiled. His smile conveyed his feelings that he was sincerely glad that I had finally made it. I thanked him and did my best to convey back to him my sincere appreciation through my own smile.

That moment defined the change that my life has taken by obtaining my degree and I always thought of how Dr. Gilmore's influence impacted other students, his friends, and his family.

What a tremendous joy and comfort it must have been to be a part of his family and close friends.

You are so extremely fortunate to have had him in your lives and I'm sure his compassion has been passed on to you. I know it has been to me.

With all respect to you and him,

“ Dr. Gilmore was a fine gentleman, a wonderful professor who really wanted his students to not only pass the course, but to also, and most importantly, understand the material...

“ I am sad to hear of your loss. Dr. Gilmore was admired and respected by all who knew him. James will truly be remembered as an icon of Sam Houston State University and the College of Business. I am personally thankful to James for many reasons. As a Finance student, he encouraged me to work hard and be a better student than I thought I could be. Upon graduation with a B.B.A. degree, he encouraged me to enroll in Graduate School. I was hesitant, but he insisted and granted me a Graduate Fellowship. Upon completion of an M.B.A. degree, again James saw more in me than I think I did at the time. He extended a full-time Lecturer position to me and said, "Teaching will never make you rich, but you will be rich at heart!" In closing, I am proud to say that going on 26 years of service to SHSU, I am still rich at heart and very blessed to have known James E. Gilmore, my mentor, colleague and friend. God bless the Gilmore Family in their loss.

“ Dear Gilmore Family,
I did not have the pleasure of having Dr. Gilmore as a professor but did see him many times in the hallways of the BA building. He always had a smile on his face and would stop and ask students how they were doing. I remember on a particular day when I was struggling with a personal issue, he invited me into his office just to visit and went out of his way to get me in touch with others who could help me. I will never forget all he did not only for me but for the College of Business Administration. My heart and prayers go out to you during this time.

“ *I remember being in Dr. Gilmore's class in the late sixties (graduated 1970). I was a serious student, but on this particular day I was not really listening to Dr. Gilmore's lecture. He noticed and called on me to answer a question. I couldn't answer it, and I was so embarrassed that I blurted out "I wasn't listening!" He just smiled, that special smile of his and continued with the lecture. Needless-to-say, I made sure I listened after that. He was a class act! “ I am saddened by the loss of a friend of many years. James and I went back a long way, for I knew him first when we were students at Lamar College in Beaumont. From Lamar, we both were in classes at Sam Houston in the College of Business under the direction of J. Roy Wells. I received my B.B.A in 1948 and returned some years later to attend summer classes to earn my M.Ed. (1974) It was good to find James there as a part of the College of Business and to pick up our friendship once again. What a special person he was--a true "gentle" man.

“ Mrs. Gilmore and family: I was a student of Dr. Gilmore in the year 1967 to 1968 in the Business School. I came from India as a graduate student. I did not know anybody and I was lost. Dr. Gilmore took me under his wings and helped me through some tough times. He guided me, counseled me and taught me and helped me with my masters program for which I am grateful. It is a sad day for me and my wife Becky. It is a great loss to the Sam Houston University and to the student body and to the humanity. He has touched so many people's lives and I am always grateful to him. Couple of years ago my nephew Abhishek graduated from Business School, invited Dr. Gilmore for our family lunch. He joined our lunch made all of our family happy for which I am grateful. Please take care and we are all proud of a man who enjoyed what he did and for which we are grateful.

“ I am so thankful to have known Dean Gilmore, though only for brief moments over my years at SHSU. I have thought of Dr. Gilmore many times over the years, as he gave me not one, but actually two separate chances to achieve a dream of being the first member of my family to have ever graduated from a university, which I finally did in 1991. I owe many of my professional and personal good fortunes to Dr. Gilmore's faith in my ability to succeed. Please accept condolences for your loss from someone he would not likely have remembered, but whose life was greatly impacted by his kindness and understanding. “ My deepest sympathy to the Gilmore family during this difficult time. May it comfort you to know that Dr. Gilmore will live on in the hearts and memories of so many individuals, whose lives he has touched. I will always remember his sweet smile and kind words whenever I took a problem to him when he was vice president for academic affairs. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him. My thoughts are with all of you.

“ Family -

I knew Dr. Gilmore through Rotary. What I will always remember is his sweet spirit and kindness to me even though our only contact was as fellow Rotarians. I can easily imagine the positive he had on many lives. He was special.

“ Dear Susan,
I writing to let you know that my family will be praying for you and your family. At the College of Business Advisory Council meetings, I would ask your dad about you. He was very proud of you I will miss getting those updates from your dad. Your dad was such a great man and I just became so fond of his sense of humor, wisdom, and knowledge. Read Psalm 121 and remember that all of your help comes from God.
