“ Meier Family,

I am so very sorry for your loss. He was always a pleasure to see in the Lake Lorraine neighborhood driving in his golf cart and fishing on the lake. He always had time to stop and chat and share a word. I know that the ducks are also going to miss him too!

My Condolences on your loss.

Jim will be missed in our neighborhood. He always had time for a conversation as I drove by the lake. My grandchildren have enjoyed the ducks he always fed. We are praying for Sandra and family.

Jim was always seen fishing in & around Lake Lorraine, visiting the neighbors and feeding the ducks. He was such an inspiration to Jeff for getting out, keep moving and not to give up with his recovery what a great friend & neighbor he was.

Sandy, you & your family have our love, support & prayers during this sad time.

Jim will truly be missed by us.

The few times Jim and I visited made me think of a big teddy bear. A quiet, soft spoken man who loved you unconditionally. He touched many lives and you have such wonderful memories to hold in your heart. I am praying for your family and Janet's family. Love you cousins!
