“ To the McMullen Family: I am sorry for your loss of your beloved Papa. As Christians we know that is not our home. Papa is in heaven now with Jesus and I know he is sitting and sharing stories with Jesus now. Rest in God's comfort, knowing that he is in a God's hands and that you will see him again some day. I will be keeping you and your family in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Papa was such a great man, and a perfect example of what a Godly person should be like. I always looked up to him for that, and I will miss him greatly. I wish I could be there to pay my respects, but I know he will have a lot of people there who love him, and honor him. My prayers are with everybody.
