“ Uncle Tom,
words will never express the sorrow that is felt during this time. You have our deepest thoughts and prayers at this time and our regrets that we couldn't attend and pay our respects in person. WE will be praying for you and your family at this time , and we will be talking to you soon.

“ We write with heavy hearts, not able to fully know your deep sorrow. But we do know that God knows your sorrow, having given His son that Kevin is even now still alive in Him! We are Dave's brother-in-law and sister-in-law. We have been praying for your family to be comforted during this time. May you sense the love and prayers of others holding you up each day. Kevin certainly led a wonderful life-- a tribute to what you taught him to value. Peace be with you.

“ Tom, Susan & Family,
We are so sadden at your loss of Kevin. While there is nothing we can say that will ease your pain, we wanted you to know that we are grieving & thinking of you all. May it comfort you to know that so many people care & are thinking of you & your family at this time. Our love & prayers are with you.

“ To all of Kevin's family, Our deepest sorrow on your loss, and may the God of All Comfort, Our Lord, hold each of you closely to Him and may you be given strength for each day. Karen Dalton, Dave's wife, is my sister, and she has let me know what a brilliant and wonderful person Kevin was...and his life was and is so precious to all who knew him! We love Dave so much, and pray comfort for all the family. In His perfect love, Susan, Lynn, and family

“ I did not know Kevin but I know and love his step brother, Bear which makes me feel connected to you. Such a terrible tragedy and I am so sorry for your loss. I believe that Kevin must have been very special for God to have needed him so soon. I will keep you all in my prayers because it is so hard on those left behind. I believe you will see him again some day, he has just ridden ahead. God Bless
