JAN HOKE

January 20, 1942 - January 27, 2022

Jan Hoke was born on January 20, 1942, in Dallas Texas, she was born to Marion and Jessie Lou Dreesen.

Jan is survived by her husband Joe Neal Hoke, of 61 years, along with her three children, Joe Hoke Jr., Frank Hoke, Sissy Byrd. Daughter in-laws, Laurie and Lisa Hoke. Jan is also survived by her six grandchildren, Morgan and Hoke Byrd, Beau and Cade Hoke, Lauren and Kinsey Hoke.

Jan, along with her kids, lived and traveled extensively overseas until they retired to Huntsville, Texas. Jan loved playing cards with her friends, working in her yard, and spending as much time as possible with her family and grandkids. You could always know where to find her by the sound of her voice at a Baseball or Soccer game, as Jan loved to holler and cheer on her grandkids and give the umpires a hard time. She was one of the kindest and sweetest people you could meet. Anyone who met her loved her.

Jan passed away at her home at the age of 80. Family surrounded her at the time of her death. Jan's wishes were to have a memorial service honoring her life.

“ The sound of her laughter is what I'll remember most, at football games I instantly knew that was my Aunt Jan. She was larger than life & always said how much she loved us!! My love for you will go on until I get to see you again. 🍷
