

Jane Wolfe Cunningham

July 2, 1926 - January 4, 2005

Jane Wolfe Cunningham was born to Fred Malcolm Wolfe and Louise Parr Wolfe on July 2nd, 1926, in Amarillo, TX. Jane graduated from Amarillo High in 1944. She attended Amarillo Junior College receiving an associate's degree. Jane subsequently attended North Texas State College taking a Bachelor's of Arts, Cum Laude in Journalism in 1949. Jane worked as a research journalist for Facts Forum in Dallas, TX. She was married to John Arthur Cunningham on November 26th, 1946. John and Jane lived in Kermit, Vanderbilt, Dallas, Corpus Christi, and Houston before moving to Connecticut. All of these were assignments with Mobil Oil Corporation. John and Jane retired to Elkins Lake, Huntsville, Texas in 1984 where they have lived since. Through the ministry of Bible Study Fellowship, Jane came to a personal faith and relationship with Christ in 1972. Since that time, she was active in Bible Study, and various churches in the areas they lived. She had a vibrant and deep love for her Lord that overflowed with compassion and love to all who were privileged to know her. Her love for the written word is evident in her extensive library, the love for books she has passed down through her sons to their children, and her constant, loving, and mischievous corrections of her grandchildren's grammar. Jane loved John, life, her sons, her daughter-in-law, her grandchildren, and her Lord. She also loved Opera, but could not convince her sons that it was worth a listen. However, apparently that gene skips generations with her grandson John picking up the Opera baton. All who knew Jane were touched by her love and concern. All who knew her mourn her loss but rejoice in the knowledge she is in the presence of her Lord. Jane is survived by her devoted husband of 58 years, John, and her son Kent of Houston, TX. Her son Mike, his wife Jenny, and their four children John, Ranae, Jeff, and Brian, live in Tulsa, OK. She is also survived by her sisters-in-law Darlene Russell of Tomball, TX and Bettie Wolfe Willet, of Oklahoma City, OK. She is also survived by many nieces, nephews, and cousins. Services will be held at 2 pm, Tuesday, at First Baptist Church, Huntsville, TX. The family will receive visitors at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home Monday evening from 5 PM through 7 PM. Reception to follow interment at Elkins Lake Country Club Clubhouse.

Tribute Wall

“ Jane Wolfe Cunningham

November 15, 2022 at 08:33 PM