“ David, Elaine, Jennifer and all of the Martin family,

When someone you love becomes a memory, the memory becomes a treasure. Today is both a sad day and happy day, sad because of the loss of someone dear to everyone, but happy in knowing that Grandpa is now resting with his Lord and Savior and he has finally been reunited with his loved ones in heaven. I want to share a favorite portion of a song that I want played at my own funeral. I hope that it brings peace to your hearts on this sad day as you say goodbye.

*“When we all get to heaven, What a day of rejoicing that will be!
When we all see Jesus, We'll sing and shout the victory!”*

“ Jared was a jewel. I was able to visit with him briefly a couple of weeks ago. We had a nice visit and shared some sweet tears together. Since moving away from that area we hadn't seen him very much. He and Geneva sang in the Huntsville Community Choir when I did and we became fast friends.

Please accept my deepest sympathy and know I am praying for you and your family.

God bless

“ We will always have sweet memories of Mr. and Mrs. Martin from family get togethers over the years. He joined our family this past Thanksgiving, at the Country House. He just wanted to sit on the porch and rock looking out at the pasture. Said it reminded him of home when he was a boy. He also entertained us at the dinner table telling of stories of his military service and his trip to Washington D.C. A truly sweet man who will be missed but we know he is in heaven with his loved ones watching us. Morris and Linda

“ Mr. Martin will be missed. He watched my husband play baseball when he was a young child, and he always came to see us at church. Sending sympathy and prayers to his family and friends... He was such a sweet person and always was cheerful and had a smile.

“ I want to share my sympathy and love with Doug and David and the rest of the members of the Jared Martin branch of our family. Uncle Jared was special to my father, Glenwood, and was a cherished member of our family. I especially appreciate his random calls over the last several years just to say hi and that he loved us. We didn't see our Texas family much but when we did it was a joy. I will miss his calls even more but know because of his faithfulness and God's grace we shall be together again. Love and peace to all who are grieving from Huntsville, TX to Alton, MO. We grieve but Jared rejoices in the arms of his Lord. Let that be our comfort. Robert Martin, Paris, TN.

“ We extend our sympathy to his family and friends. It was a pleasure to have worked with him at Huntsville Memorial hospital. Always easy to carry on a conversation with, even was able to talk about home (St Louis, and the Hanley Hills area). RIP Jared. Lew & Judy McDonald

“ Jared was indeed a deacon, a servant, and his entire life was such a blessing to others. He did so many things for others - from constructing wheelchair ramps to installing appliances to making people laugh to visiting those in the hospital and those who had lost loved ones to VBS crossing guard to my right hand planner of senior adult trips to senior adult choir to loving his family to following the latest sports exploits of his grandchildren etc to taking up the offering on Sundays and voicing some of the most meaningful prayers to faithfulness in so many things ... come now and enter into the joy of your Lord ... that which was done in secret shall be made known and the many acts of kindness and love you have shown bears testimony of your faith. Jared has now been reunited with his wonderful love, his own "Gen", and his son, Dennis. Such wonderful memories of such a truly Christian gentleman. Now 'Victory in Jesus' is experienced personally by Jared and "you can say that again." A man I counted as a friend is now safely at home. Until we meet again -

Mr. Martin was a gentle, sweet spirit who loved and was loved by so many. He brought much comfort with his warm and loving nature. From being my youth group director at FBC to my coworker at HMM, quick chance encounters throughout the years when I visited Huntsville...I count him as one of those influential people I shall always remember with the highest regard.. My deepest sympathy to his family.

We all loved Jared. Why? Because he loved us...and we all knew the love he had for his Savior. There was nothing pretentious about this beautiful friend. When Jared prayed. . .you knew in your own heart. . .that GOD was listening. What encouragement for us. What joy to have him touch our lives. . .we all want to be a friend such as our Jared..

I was impressed how Jared would pitch in and help with activities at FBC. He made everybody feel welcome. Jared and Geneva were dear friends of our family; and we shared our family losses and successes together. There is only one Jared, and he was truly, a wonderful outgoing person. He was a true believer and he will be dearly missed by his church and community.
