

Jason Ralph Cadwallader

August 27, 1975 - May 4, 2018

On Friday, May 4, 2018, Jason Cadwallader, husband, father, son, brother, went to be with his Heavenly Father. Jason was a man of strong faith, believing in the power and strength of Jesus Christ's love and the beauty and peace that would await him after his passing. Born on August 27, 1975, in Monroe, Louisiana. He graduated from Huntsville High school and received his Bachelor's Degree in Business/Human Resource Management from Baylor University.

Anyone that spent time around Jason would certainly hear about Jesus, the redemptive work of his Savior, his treasured family, and drilling water wells. He was a full time dad, and spent hours with each of his four children, whether it was rodeoing with Alli Paige, playing basketball with Caleb, working at Holly Water Wells with J.K., or swinging with Mariclay. When Jason wasn't ministering to his family, who he called his first mission field, he was focused on people. Jason always called people God's greatest treasure, and Jason loved people. He will forever be remembered as a leader in the community and in his church, Lonestar Cowboy Church. He was a passionate man who touched numerous lives. He was a true example of walking the walk and talking the talk. Jason loved his friends and family as his Lord loved him.

Inheriting his father's passion for the water well industry, he went above and beyond with Holly Water Wells, and in typical Jason fashion, he became President and Director at large of the Texas Groundwater Association, named Contractor of the Year from the Texas Groundwater Association in 2018, and used this knowledge and passion to drill water wells in third world countries through mission work.

Carrying on his legacy is his wife and best friend, Shelby, and beloved children Alli Paige, Caleb, JK, and Mariclay. He is preceded in death by his father, Ralph A. Cadwallader, and survived by mother, Sandy Cadwallader, sister Karen West and husband Ryan of Houston, their children Cade, Ryland, Addie James, Lane; Along with Jeff, Paige, Kate, Ben, and Hannah Japhet of New Braunfels; Drew, Katie, and Kennedy Fritsch of Huntsville; Aaron, Ashleigh, Wyatt, and Elizabeth Fritsch of San Antonio; Father and Mother in law Dr. William Fritsch and Nan Fritsch of Hondo.

“ I posted a note to you as soon as I learned of Jason's passing, but it has somehow disappeared.

Shelby, family, and friends, JoAnn and I are so deeply saddened to learn of Jason's passing. I will always remember your kindnesses as you so graciously welcomed me into your beautiful home and afforded me the blessing of knowing you and your beautiful children. We will continue to lift each of you in our prayers. We are hurting with you now, but we are also celebrating the home going of one of God's very best. May the Lord bless you and give you His peace in this very difficult time as only He can.

“ *Don't think of him as gone away
his journey's just begun, life holds so many facets
this earth is only one.*

*Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears
in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.*

*Think how he must be wishing that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.*

*And think of him as living

“ There are no words to adequately express the sorrow in losing a family member. I read this the other day and hope it brings you and your family some comfort. It's obvious the Lord spoke it and used the author to write it down.

*To my dearest family, some things I'd like to say... but first of all, to let you know, that I arrived okay.
I'm writing this from heaven. Here I dwell with God above.
Here, there's no more tears of sadness; here is just eternal love.*

*Please do not be unhappy just because I'm out of sight.
Remember that I'm with you every morning, noon and night.
That day I had to leave you when my life on earth was through,
God picked me up and hugged me and He said, "I welcome you."*

It's good to have you back again; you were missed while you were gone.

*As for your dearest family, they'll be here later on.
I need you here badly; you're part of my plan.
There's so much that we have to do, to help our mortal man.*

*God gave me a list of things that he wished for me to do.
And foremost on the list, was to watch and care for you.
And when you lie in bed at night, the day's chores put to flight.
God and I are closest to you....in the middle of the night.*

*When you think of my life on earth, and all those loving years because you are only human, they are bound to bring you tears.
But do not be afraid to cry; it does relieve the pain.
Remember there would be no flowers, unless there was some rain.*

*I wish that I could tell you all that God has planned.
But if I were to tell you, you wouldn't understand.
But one thing is for certain, though my life on earth is o'er.
I'm closer to you now, than I ever was before.*

*There are many rocky roads ahead of you and many hills to climb;
but together we can do it by taking one day at a time.
It was always my philosophy and I'd like it for you too... that as you give unto the world, the world will give to you.*

*If you can help somebody who's in sorrow and pain, then you can say to God at night....."My day was not in vain."
And now I am contented....that my life has been worthwhile, knowing as I passed along the way, I made somebody smile.*

*So if you meet somebody who is sad and feeling low,
just lend a hand to pick him up, as on your way you go.
When you're walking down the street, and you've got me on your mind;
I'm walking in your footsteps only half a step behind.*

And when it's time for you to go.... from that body to be free, remember you're not going.....you're coming here to me.

Shelby, children, and family, JoAnn and I were so very sad to learn of Jason's departure this morning. I was blessed to be welcomed in your home, get to know your family, and worship with you at the Cowboy Church. I will always remember how welcome you and your family made me feel. Thank you for sharing Jason with me.

Now, we lift you and your family and friends in our prayers as we are sad because Jason is no longer here with us, but through that sadness we also celebrate the homegoing of one of God's very best. May our Father grant you peace and the assurance only He can give.
