

Jason Edward Hammock

December 16, 1973 - June 26, 2022

Jason Edward Hammock was born December 16, 1973 in Conroe, Texas. He passed away suddenly on June 26, 2022 in Tomball, Texas at the age of 48. Jason is survived by his stepdad Chano Contreras of Conroe, Texas, sisters Connie Contreras and Marie Ann Contreras of Conroe, Texas, Aunts (more like sisters) Ona Ruth Phillips of Dacus, Texas and Barbara Blanks of Dobbin, Texas, uncle (more like a brother) John Hammock of Dobbin, Texas and numerous cousins, nieces and nephews.

Jason is preceded in death by his mom Elizabeth Contreras, grandfather Clifford Hammock, grandmother Lila Hammock, uncles (more like brothers) Jimmy Hammock, Troy Hammock, Douglas Hammock and Allen Hammock. Jason had a passion for life and never met a single stranger. His way of showing you his love was to constantly pick at you and tease you, which he was quite good at. He was devoted to playing the Texas lottery and always had his scratch off tickets in hand. He loved to gamble and made many trips to the casinos in Louisiana over the years along with playing Bingo every chance he got. He also loved baseball and enjoyed watching the Houston Astros play ball. He was a huge Astros fan and could tell you play by play for each game they played.

Pallbearers are Jim Leshinger, John Hammock, Gerald Blanks, Derek Reynolds, Dillon Reynolds and Reece Reynolds.

A graveside service will be held on Thursday July 7, 2022 at 11:30 am at the Plantersville Cemetery off Hwy 1774 in Plantersville, Texas. Pastor Bo Cheatham will be officiating the service. Lunch will immediately follow the service at the Dobbin Community Center. You may leave written condolences to the family at www.shmfh.com.
