

Jason Don Turner

May 21, 1985 - May 31, 2021

Jason D Turner, our loving son went to be with his Lord and Savior on May 31st 2021 at the age of 36, in Conroe Texas. Jason was born on May 21st 1985 in Houston Texas to Tammy Renee' Turner. He was raised by his parents Charles (Chuck) and Tammy Turner - Hooker in Spring Texas. Jason later moved to Huntsville, TX in 2010 to be closer to his parents.

Jason attended Anderson Elementary, Dueitt Middle school and Spring High School. Jason was a little league baseball player at Northwest 45 for many years. Jason was a natural and better known to his teammates as " Burner Turner" for his fast ability to burn around the bases. His mom was his biggest fan, only missing one game out of hundreds over many years. Aside from baseball, Jason played football for Dueitt middle school. There wasn't a sport that Jason wasn't good at.

At a very young age Jason had a passion for the outdoors. Hunting and fishing were Jason's favorite pastimes. He had a longing and desire to be in the woods or near the water every chance he could.

Jason was a carpenter and craftsman by trade; learning at a very young age from his Pawpaw. He did new construction and remodeling. He was a gifted young man which he got natural. Jason comes from a long line of family Master Woodworkers. Jason was also an experienced a machinist where he worked at NOV and United Machines.

In Jason's spare time, if he wasn't working or in the woods or near the water, he most likely had a steak on the grill. Jason loved cooking both indoors and outdoors. His favorite was cooking outdoors and typically consisted of his favorite music playing, as Jason was an avid music lover.

Jason's biggest attribute to life was his "Golden Heart". Jason was the epitome of love and generosity. Those that knew Jason knew him for his kindness and ability to give you anything he could. No matter how big or small or who you were, he was always there to help and to give.

Even after tragedy struck unexpectedly, taking this loving man from his family and with the assistance of his mother, Jason was still giving. He has given new and prolonged life to others by donating his organs. Jason leaves us a true "Hero".

Jason is survived by his parents Charles and Tammy, daughter Maddilynn, sister Laci, half-sister Heather, his best buddy "Lil Willie", his dog Toby, grandmother Deborah Turner, Uncle Robert, Aunt Shannon, numerous great aunts and uncles, countless cousins and loving friends.

Jason is preceded in death by his grandfather Harry "Oscar" Turner, great grandparents William and Lois Garber, Tip and Bernice Turner.

Jason truly was an incredible soul, loved by many. This is not goodbye. We will always carry his memory in our hearts, until we meet again.

"To all of these, grant your peace. Let Perpetual light shine upon them; and help us to believe where we have not seen, that your presence may lead us through our years, and bring us at last with them into the joy of your home not made with hands, Eternal in the heavens; through Jesus Christ Our Lord. Amen"

Services for Jason will be Saturday, June 19, 2021 at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home in Huntsville, TX at 2:00pm. A reception will be held later in the afternoon at J&L Events, 368 TX Hwy 75, Huntsville, Texas 77320 from 4:00 – 6:00pm. Memorial condolences to the family may be made at www.shmfh.com.

“ My sweet boy! There are no words to describe this pain. Life will never be the same here without you and I will be forever broken until I see you again. You were supposed to be here forever for me to love. Your life cut short, gone way to soon. Your smile, your love, your kindness and endless charm will be forever missed by your family and many many friends whom lives you touched. You were and will always be a light in this world. I love you my angel...Forever loved Forever missed ❤️

“ My Sweet, Handsome Nephew “Jay”

I can't believe I'm writing about you and not to you. Seems insane to me. But I'm gonna try my best.

From the time I found out I was gonna be a Aunt. I was only 13 years. old. I was so excited. Then you were born.. A tiny little guy struggling to breathe.. But you made it. What a little fighter. You always was Jay. I was proud of you as you grew into a caring, loving, handsome young man. “Wow” at the girls 😊

You were my first born nephew. Thirty years I was allowed and Blessed to have you in my life. People sometimes thought you were mine lol we all look so much alike. You were my little buddy. My friends and I never minded babysitting when could. So many memories I will cherish for my time here on earth.

The day I worked with you and you bought me my Pink Cross. I never knew what would really mean to me. A gift from you to me. That was you. My sweet handsome nephew. What can I say. I was blessed to be your Aunt Shannon. “NaNa “ I will miss you Jay. We will meet again. I hope your there waiting with all our loved ones.

*I love you.

“ Like most of us, the time that we new Jason, one memory is not enough, but I will share my last memory with you. I was in my garage with my Grandson & had a knock at the door one night during the weekend just a few months ago & it was Jason, he said he was just driving through the old neighborhood & just thinking about the old neighborhood where he grew up & saw my light on in the garage so he decided to stop & visit. As always, that giant Smile and hand shake welcomed me as he came in. We visited for a while and we talked about everything going on in both our lives before he headed home. As You left my garage, I would have never thought that would be the last time I heard your voice or felt that strong handshake and that unforgettable smile & that amazing caring hug You always gave as You left my house that night & or that i would never see you again. Through the decades that I have known You, You have always stopped by to say HELLO to the old Guy across the street and his family.

WE WILL MISS YOU !! Godspeed MY Friend, You will Be Missed Dearly !!

Your memories will live on in our Hearts forever !!

That was Gods work. Like his dad keeps telling me. None if this was coincidence...It was right in front of us, we just didn't know what was coming. Jason was closing one chapter at a time. Thank you for caring about my sweet boy. We love y'all ❤️

“Tomorrow is not goodbye but hello to your new life. Wrapped in the arms of our sweet Jesus. It doesn't get any better than that. The hardest decision I would ever make in this lifetime. To let you go ! Free of pain, sorrow or any question you may have had. You are free to fly my precious boy. I will forever miss you and that sweet smile. You were the one thing that warmed my heart that always made me smile. It didn't matter if it was a text or the sound of hearing your truck come down the road. It was you, a bond that only a mother and son could have and understand. Even in your times of struggle or question, nothing could have ever made me love you less, EVER ! You will live forever in my heart and through me, I promise. You will forever live in my heart. . Your love will live, I will forever praise your " golden heart" and distribute as you would expect me to do, for I taught you best.....Again, as I said to you a few weeks ago. I'm sorry son! I wish I would have taught you to put yourself first above all men. You said, " No mom, I am who our maker created me to be and I'm gracious for the person I am". I will miss your love always Jason. Thank you for ALWAYS making every memory so special. You were one of a kind, my special person. I haven't quite figured out how I am going to do it here without you but God will see me through some way, some how. I will always love you son, my precious boy❤️ Always & forever, Mom

“ I met Jason when we were just kids visiting Texas with my step sister Lori. He is the cousin of my step-sisters, Lori and Kelley Brassell. We played as children and he was unforgettable and remember him being very cute too bc I was boy crazy as a kid. I haven't seen him since I was a child in person. I reconnected with him via FB in the past year or so. Just as handsome as a man. I enjoyed reading his posts about his love for God and Family. Thoughts and prayers for his sweet family and friends. Rest in Jesus' love! See you in person again on the other side, Jason Turner. ❤️🙏

“ My precious Grand-son, Jason. How would I begin to talk about one memory of you, when there are thousands. Pawpaw and I loved you from the day you came into our lives. We were so proud of the wonderful person you became so sweet, kind and gentle. You loved life and your family with all your golden heart. I will love and cherish every precious memory I have of you my sweet boy until we meet again. Your passing has and will be, the hardest thing of my life. Until we meet again my sweet, sweet love!! “ Jason, It is no coincidence that your mother and me had you back the last several months. So much makes sense to us now. We made so many new memories as a family and I am glad we did. It was God, I know that was doing his work through you and it was right in front of me. All the talks we had and time we spent together reassures me that beyond a doubt I know God welcomed you with open arms. I enjoyed working with you for those last few months and all the weekends we spent together as our family right up to your birthday. I feel there is nothing right about the situation and way you had to leave us and it is hard to understand but so many of your words from our talks let me know that your in a better place. I'm really proud of you and I hope you knew how your words encouraged me to be a better man. We miss you and always will. it will be very different here without you. Willie says he loves you. I love you son and we will meet you on the other side. I know you will be there waiting for us. Love Dad

“ Jason was my brother in law, and we have many memories from the last 7 years he was with my sister. My oldest son spent a week with them at their home in huntsville, as Jason taught him things about the outdoors. My son didn't have a father figure and Jason was that to him. He even joined me at Bridget and Jason's wedding where I caught the bouquet and got the best picture with Jason making one of his goofy faces. After getting to know him, I'm glad he's finally at peace. We will all miss the fond memories of the guy he was.

“ I remember meeting you when you were a working at the bar I went into after work one day, after that you stopped at nothing to get my number and even showed up at my job the next day. From that day on, we spent all summer together. You gave me some beautiful memories. You had some things to handle to be able to be whole again so we went our separate ways but have kept in touch through social media throughout the years. I will never forget you and the hours of conversation we shared that summer. May you finally be at peace. Forever and always..❤️

“ Jason, this seems so unreal and unfair. It's been years since I've seen you but I know through social media you found Jesus Christ, I remember one day you posted a video speaking the gospel and I was so proud of you. There was something about your laugh that would make others laugh as well. I know you loved your momma and sister fiercely and I know you're up above watching over them daily. RIP old friend until meet again!!!!

“ My fiance at the time kept telling about the men's ministry and this guy named Jason he met. Jason somehow talked my fiance to take a vow of celibacy. I thought this man is crazy! However after meeting Jason and his soon to be wife Bridget they somehow convinced me as well. I thought it was crazy but I can honestly say because of that decision and the conviction Jason put on my fiance. It taught us a different type of intimacy.

“ I met Jason shortly after my husband and I moved to Huntsville. I was working a couple of Saturdays a month answering the phone at the mobile home center where he was a salesman at the time. He was such a nice guy! He was so friendly, polite, and unbelievably hard working. It turned out that we discovered we were attending the same church! I'm so glad to know that he is with our Lord and Savior. My heart hurts for his family, though. I'm so very sorry for your loss, and I am thankful to have met your sweet Jason.

“ *To my Brother,
I miss you more than words could ever describe. Saying you were the best bubba is a complete understatement. You were there for me no matter the issue, time, or place. Your love will forever be with me. The memories we made will forever be with me until my last breath. I have so many that I can't just write about one. I know you know you were the best bubba out there. I loved you so much. I still love you so much. I miss you so much. I wish you were still here with us cracking jokes. I wish I could see you throw your head back & crack up just because you thought I was the funniest person ever. Lord I dont know how I'm going to make it without you. How ever many years just seems like such a long time until I get to see you again. I know you will be waiting for me at the gates of heaven & I cannot wait to see you on the other side. Forever missing you. I love you so much.*

“ *Dear Sweet Cousin,
My heart aches. I've been in Facebook jail for a month and haven't been able to comment on anything. You'd laugh and ask me what I did this time. Lol. Your bright eyed smile, bear hugs, and joking around will be so missed. You taking 5 hours to cook breakfast tacos while we talked about life will be missed. Makers Mark shots together while dancing a jig together will be missed. Your kind and giving heart was one of a kind. Your gentleman ways were always noticed. First to hop up n ask if someone needed help. First to hold a door. First to help someone move. Always a giver....right down to your final stroll down that hospital hallway to donate your organs for others. You're now in a much better place and I know you're dancing a jig up there looking down on us n telling us it's gonna be ok. You will be so missed Jater. Prayers for healing for my family. Until I see you again. I love you.*
