“ Even though you were taller than me by a long shot, you were still my sweet baby cousin. A cousin I got to watch grow from start to finish. I wish I would have let you know a little more how proud of was of you (and Jordan too). Aunt Tasha and Uncle Justin did great, you blossomed into this responsible, respectful, and lovable young man. I won't question God, all I know is he takes the greatest. You were one of the greatest. Our hearts are in pieces but hey, you're with granny, papa, and Christain again.. and gotten to meet Uncle Man Man. You're beautiful soul will truly be missed.

I love you, forever.

“ Our deepest condolences go out to The Brown Family. I had the pleasure of teaching Javen his Junior year, where he excelled in my class. In addition, my husband coached him for 4 years, my son and daughter graduated with him last year and my son played football with him for 6 years. He could light up a room with that beaming smile. May his memory be eternal.
