

Jaybin and Niclas Soto

March 28, 2025

Jaybin Lazaro Soto, 23, of Huntsville, Texas tragically passed away with his younger brother on March 28, 2025.

He was born on January 26, 2002, one minute after his twin brother Jerick.

Jaybin began his educational career at Stewart Elementary in Huntsville ISD and completed it as a 2020 graduate of Huntsville High School.

During his childhood, he had a built-in set of best friends, his brothers.

Together, the 3 of them shared countless memories filled with Hot Wheels, Power Rangers, sports stats, favorite TV shows, secrets amongst themselves, laughs, tears, arguments, & so many life decisions. Through the good, the bad, & sometimes ugly, the love they shared was immeasurable & the bond they had was untouchable.

Jaybin began working at Whataburger when he was 17 and was joined shortly after by both of his brothers until they all 3 left in 2023. At the time of his passing, Jaybin was an assembler at UFP (Universal Forest Products) lumber company in New Waverly, where he worked alongside both of his brothers at one point. During his time at both workplaces, Jaybin was described as hardworking, caring, & motivated, along with many other respected qualities. In his position at UFP, Jaybin-or “J Balvin” as they endearingly nicknamed him, is remembered for being a valued crew member, whose hard work didn’t go unnoticed, for having natural born leadership, and for potential for advancement within the company.

The birth of his baby girl, Malaysia, in 2024, impacted Jaybin greatly. He wanted nothing more than to be the best dad for her & he strived to be that every day. His face lit up & he beamed with pride every chance he got to speak about her & he cherished every second he was able to spend with her.

Jaybin's most important attribute was caring deeply for his family, who are left to cherish his memory and continue his legacy:
