

Jean Hubbard Heath

August 21, 2014

Jean Hubbard Heath, loving daughter of Jean Goold Wagner, passed away on August 21, 2014 of natural causes. She is also survived by her sister Carol Heath Edgar, and her brother William Bradford Heath. Jean was a high school graduate and had worked in the field of law. She will be remembered by her family and friends as a warm, loving person who always tried to help those in need and was an avid San Francisco 49er fan. A private memorial service will be held in her honor by the immediate family. The family requests that those who wish to honor, Jean, make donations to Grace Lutheran Church, in Conroe, Texas or the charity of their choice. You are invited to leave messages of condolence to her family on our website at www.shmfh.com

“ I'm so very sorry to hear of Jeanie's passing. It seems like just yesterday that she was sending me a text or voicemail regarding some great QVC deal. I know with time and distance that we hadn't seen each other in 30 years, but I will always remember fondly our family visits at Mare Island or Pop and Gran's in Carmel. Carol, Bill and Aunt Jean you are in our thoughts and prayers and we send our love. Regards, Dave

“ We are so sad to hear about Jean (Jeannie to us). We have known her for about 20 years and loved going to hear music with her. As the Music Editor of a local paper, we saw her often and she was a big fan of live music. Our prayers are with her family.
