“ What a friend Jean was to me. Words,tears or anyother form of human comunication that I know of could ever come close to expressing the friendship and love that she so freely gave to me.

I have often heard it said that we should choose our friends during times of trouble, because then we will know that they are truly friends. She was there in the darkest hour for me, and in the most joyful hours. I truly am a rich lady to be able to count this lady a true friend. And my life will be less with the lost of her. But her instruction and memorys of her will never fade. So dear Friend,until we meet again...
