“ I just read this in the paper and I am so sad to hear about this. I met Jean in 2010 and we stayed in touch and had lunch a time or two when we could. I pray for her family at this time and know in my heart this lady was such an inspiration to others in so many ways. She will be missed deeply.

“ J. W. and family, we were so sorry to learn of Jean's death. It sounds like she was loved by all and has been a great influence on all of the lives she has touched during her time here on earth. Although we haven't seen her since our school days, (which was long, long ago!) we recall, with fondness, her sweet and caring nature. We will be praying for strength, courage and faith for you and your family.

“ My prayers for your comfort in the loss of your dear beloved Jean. I had the pleasure of working beside Jean and can tell you that I will dearly miss her quick wit and compassion. She was a strong and inspirational lady; not to mention her artist talent and her love for cake baking and decorating. When God saw that man's cures could no longer heal her, he invited her to his home for eternal comfort and peace.

With Love and condolences to all her Families
