“ We were very saddened by the news of the loss of Jeff, we have grown to know and love him after hanging out with him bright and early in the morning for every home texans game. We enjoyed every moment we shared with him and we will miss him greatly. Michelle we are here if you need us, you and the Pockuba family will be in our thoughts and prayers.

We love you,

Your tailgate buddies Karen and Mikel Silvertooth

“ I have had the honor of knowing Jeff and through the years of he and Michelle coming down for all the holidays feel as if we have loss a member of the family. I wish I could have taped (might have had to edited it before children saw it) my last conversation with Jeff this past Thanksgiving for it was one of man who truly was happy and content with all parts of his life, particulary his marriage with Michelle. I can not think of a couple that were more suited for each each and though cut short and many dreams unrealized, the time they had is better than a hundred lifetimes for most people. Michelle, we love and hope you know you have a home not only for the holidays but in our heart forever,
George
