“ I was sorry to read your daughter fell asleep in death. Your tears are not unnoticed by the Creator of Life. Although I have never met the family I pray the tender mercy that God has always shown be with you now so you will know that you are not alone and may the prayers of others help in some small way to bring you strength, comfort and courage each day. Soon God will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord will certainly wipe the tears from all faces Isaiah 25:8

“ Jenn was an amazing friend that never took any thing in life for granted. Her smile was always warm and welcoming. Her voice calming. She was the best friend God could have ever seen fit to place in my life. My tears aren't for her but for myself because I will be unable to hug or hear her voice or smile. Memories we made will for ever be my treasure... You are loved and you left a legacy

“ Janet and family,
I just wanted to tell you how much of a shock this was. I can't believe our beautiful Jenifer is gone. We know, however, that she is rejoicing with our Lord now and not suffering. My prayers are with you and the family. Always remember that she is now the angel sitting on your shoulders. God Bless You all.

“ Janet, Jimmy, Uncle Clay and Aunt Ruth,

We are truly sorry to hear of Jenifer's passing. She is a beautiful young woman and her life was too short. She's in God's loving arms now and free from pain and illness.

We will keep all of you and your family in our prayers to get through this difficult time as you celebrate Jenifer's life.

“ Jenifer, I can not believe you are gone. I remember all the fun times we had, both being single and loving life. We lost touch after we got married but I never and will never forget you. I will never look at the doors to Shenannigan's the same again, remembering our Thursday and Saturday nights spent there. I know we drove both of our Mother's crazy at times but God it was fun. I have always thought of you as my sister and will continue to do so. I love you girl. Janet and Jessica if there is anything you need please do not hesitate to call me. I will keep you all in my prayers. To Jenifer's children...You had a wonderful mother who loved you with all of her heart. She will always be with you.
