

Jennifer "Hope" Carpenter

November 28, 1949 - March 23, 2015

Jennifer "Hope" Carpenter, of Montgomery, Texas lost her courageous battle on March 23, 2015. Hope was born to Odis and Gladys Carpenter in Brazoria County on November 28, 1949.

Hope spent her last 20 years with Karen Herzik in Kemah, Houston and Montgomery. She is survived by her sister, Jaymie Morris and husband Wayne, a brother Odis Carpenter; nephews Terry Morris and wife Lindy, Scott Morris and wife Ginger, Kelly Morris and wife Nikie, as well as nieces and nephews, Carl Dale, Cindy, Carla, Karen, Teresa and Cheryl. She is preceded in death by her parents, Odis and Gladys Carpenter and her brother Dale Carpenter.

Hope enjoyed golfing, boating, camping, singing and listening to music around the campfire. She had a passion for helping those less fortunate than her. She regularly donated to St. Jude Children's Hospital and on her twice a week trips to Houston for her blood transfusions, she never missed the opportunity to donate at least a couple of dollars to a particular homeless man. On occasion she would pack a homemade meal and insist that Karen go deliver it to a homeless lady living in the nearby woods. She was always ready to cook a good meal and surround herself with friends for a fun evening.

A memorial service honoring Jennifer Hope Carpenter will be held at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home in Montgomery, Texas on Friday, March 27th at 11 a.m. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to St. Jude Children's Hospital or make a donation of Hope's true Gift of Life –the gift of donating blood.

“ My most sincere condolences to all of Hope's family. I only learned of her leaving her earthly life to ascend to a place far more beautiful, a week ago. I'm very sorry for those of you left behind, who loved her so much. May we all remember her as the beautiful person she was, and her very loving heart.
