“ On behalf, of the Walker County Scramble Heifer Committee, our thoughts and prayers are the Counsil family at this difficult time. We were priviledged to have Jennifer and her father Jim as heifer donors for our program. Their involvement with the agricultural community is greatly appreciated. I only knew her for a short time, but others on our committee knew her longer and she will be greatly missed. I enjoyed the time I was able to spend with her. We are so sorry for your loss.

“ To the Council Family,Words cannot convey the grief and sorrow we share with you.Jennifer made her way into our life when we met her at Leona Baptist Church, while she was attending Sam Houston College and became part of our family.She loved keeping the children in the nursery,and it did not matter how many, each child was embraced and felt her love.She spoke with much pride about her nieces and nephews , and her family. She brought a Ray of Sunshine when she walked into a room. We were truly blessed to receive the love she showed to us.We will miss her calls and drop-by visits.She will be waiting for us at the" Pearly Gate," with that great smile! You will be in our prayers as you go through this time. May God be close,comfort and strengthen your Faith.d

“ Ms. Counsil was a tremendous source of support and encouragement to Kate over the past two years and spurred on her interest in animals, but especially horses. She lended a ear to Kate when we had a family crisis and it was comforting to me to know that Jennifer was at HHS and someone Kate could go to during difficult times.

“ To the Council family: Jennifer touched the lives of both my children as well as myself; Kaleb as an agriculture teacher, Sarah as an ag teacher and FFA Advisor (she is an FFA officer)and me, as a fellow teacher. They always had a Jennifer story whether it be from school or an outing FFA had attended. We do not know the pain you feel at this time, but we believe God can give you the strength you need.

“ Ms. Council was one of my favorite teachers. She was always laid back and fun but everyone knew when she wanted something done to get down to business. I will never forget being in the shop when she cut her thumb (basically off) and laughing with her about how the kids were freaked out more than she was. My heart and prayers go out to her family and sweet Mazy. She was such a great person

“ To the Counsil Family.. Our hearts are broken, our prayers and love goes out to you and your family. "Counsil" was truly a blessing from above words can't describe. She was Kaci's teacher, a great friend, an advisor, and most of all she was a part of us. There wasn't a day that went by Kaci told me something with "Counsil" - she was a very special lady to all that knew her and to be honest everyones "BEST FRIEND"!

We will miss her so much... May GOD be with you and your family.

“ My youngest cousin, Jennifer Counsil, passed away last week. She was only 32 years old but had affected the life of as many people as those 3 times her age. I still remember where I was standing at the moment I found out Aunt Carole had had a baby girl....the first one in 12 years in our family. I was elated and determined that I was going to be her best friend. Time and distance took our lives in varying directions, but I never lost that feeling of how special she was that I felt as a 12-year old on the day of her birth. I last saw her just before Christmas in 2009 and our dogs played together. We laughed about their goofiness and I will cherish that memory as long as I live. I pray for my family and most specifically for Aunt Carole and Uncle Jim and my cousins, Carey, Kevin and Kyle (her brothers) as well as their families. You guys, we have lost Jennifer here on Earth but we have gained an angel whose name we know.

There was not a day that went by that she didn't have something good or funny to say about her. She had no way of knowing how much she touched the lives of all that knew her. She was a wonderful, caring, teacher, and friend. She reached her kids on a level that made learning exciting, and fun. Our prayers and hearts go out to your family, as she will be missed in ours.
