

Jerry Wayne Lockwood

March 4, 1948 - August 8, 2018

Jerry Wayne Lockwood was born March 4 1948, in Sand Spring, Oklahoma to Fred Lockwood and Leona Mavis Lockwood.

He grew up in California and moved to Bryan, Texas at the age of 14. Jerry joined the service and served his Country honorably in the Vietnam War in 1968 and 1969 as a proud US Marine.

He worked in the construction industry all of his life and lived the Semper Fi life motto "always faithful" until his passing.

Jerry had a tremendous love for hunting and spending time with his grandkids Clayton and Makayla. Nothing made him smile brighter than having his grandchildren around.

Jerry passed away on August 8, 2018, in his home.

He is survived by wife Ginger Lockwood and their three children Sam, Fred and Cathy; along with two grandkids Clayton and Makayla; and a brother Fred Lockwood and a brother Jason Smith.

“ *I am truly saddened to hear of the passing of my SFA classmate. Jerry and I spent our High school years together thru graduation in 1968. Unknowingly, we both joined the Marines and ironically crossed paths in a mess hall at 1st Marine Division Headquarters near Danang, Vietnam during our tour in the spring of 1969.
