“ Jerry filled his role as head of the family with visits, calls, cards and letters and all with a tender heart. He was sharp, whitty well versed in many subjects. He called me almost every day always concerned with everyone's well being right down to the last greatgrand. He loved to talk about MaMa and Daddy, his memories of growing up. He was an unashamed Christian , generous to a fault and well loved. I'll meet you in the morning . Saleta Carolyn

Much love to all Jerry's sisters , wife Pat, and all his extended family. Your loss is heaven's gain. He's probably trying to find a phone so he can call you. As Christians you can all look forward to a glorious reunion in heaven. May God wrap his arms around you and hold you tight during this difficult time. Linda Ryals Jones

“ Jerry Carlos was the best brother a girl could have. He was witty, smart, funny and tender hearted. About 15 years ago he and I started phoning each other daily on our way to work and we continued our daily calls until his strength gave out. He was a renaissance man. He was well versed in so many things and of course he was a Cracker-Jack salesman. He loved his family fiercely and I am so blessed to be his “baby” sister. I will have a hole in my heart each day around 9am, waiting for your call. Godspeed Jerry.💔
