

Jesse James Oates

December 13, 1962 - January 24, 2017

Jesse James Oates, 54, went home to be with His Lord on January 24, 2017. His devotion to his family and his salvation through Jesus Christ gives us comfort knowing he is in heaven.

Jesse was born to James Wyatt Oates, Jr. and Alta Christilles Oates on December 13, 1962. He graduated from Huntsville High School and went on to retire from TDCJ as a Program Specialist.

He was employed at Carolina Creek Christian Camp at the time of his passing. He truly seemed to have found his calling in the camp surroundings and with the people he worked with.

Jesse's interest and passions were many, foremost was his love of people, how things worked and why, the outdoors, the world at large, and so much more.

He is survived by his loving wife of 31 years, Velma Oates, his mother, Alta Oates and sister-in-law Martha Oates. Preceded in death by his father, James Wyatt Oates, Jr., brother, James Wyatt Oates III and his grandparents.

Children were important to Jesse and he wanted them to learn about the love of Jesus. So, in lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Carolina Creek Christian Camp.

He seemed to have touched everyone he met and will be truly missed by many.

The family will receive friends from 5:30 till 7:30 PM on Friday, January 27, 2017 at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home in Huntsville, Texas. Funeral services will be held at 10:00 AM on Saturday, January 28, 2017 in the chapel of Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home in Huntsville, Texas. Interment will follow the service at Raven Hill Cemetery in Oakhurst, Texas.

Full obituary may be viewed and memorial condolences made to the family at www.shmfh.com.

“ I had the good luck of going to school and then later in life, to work with Jesse. There was no kinder person I know...I never understood how he could be so ferocious on the football field, but, yet a friend to all off the field. He has been over to our house many times to talk with husband about beekeeping. Many times, I would sit on the tailgate & just listen to ALL the knowledge he had about them. Jesse is one of those persons that will be missed, but thought of often with happiness!!

“ Jesse is the best man I have ever known. A man after God's own heart, with a deep compassion for people and a great love for his bride. I will treasure forever our 'perimeter checks' when we prayed over the camp and our beloved church, and talked about world events.

I thank you, Jesse, for your friendship, your wisdom and leadership; most of all for the Christ-like example you set for us all. I know you'll be watching over us. That is who you are. See you when we get there!

“ I grew up just down the road from Jesse and Wyatt. I too remember all the water we knocked out of that old pond! Fond memories of the Oates boys. Go ride high on the mountain! We'll meet again some day my friend. God hold up this family in your loving arms and give them comfort in this time of need. Jill Stutts Frazier, Mountain Home, TX

“ Didn't know I'd be cooking for Jesse his last time. So thankful God allowed our paths to cross. Definitely going to miss making the "Eugene plates" for him as he called it. I know I'll see you again one day in heaven. R.I.P Jesse!

“ *I have been so Bless to have known Jesse since about 5th grade.
Many, many memories of our childhood. If you grew up in Crabbs Prairie, you have swam in his pond, You might even have swung over the water from the platform that was built for that. You probably laid on the pontoon while Mrs. Oates was washing her hair in the artisan water that fed the pond. Jesse and I worked together,,,, hauling hay. He was Too Good at this job. Yes! His problem was trying to throw the bale of hay up to the guy on the truck without throwing the bale OVER the truck. (he would have to walk around to get the bale and then "toss' it up.) Jesse touched many lives. I am Thankful He touched mine! R.I.P, my Beautiful Friend. The world has lost a very Special Man! Margo Keller Chandler*

“ I have never met a man who was kinder, gentler yet strong level headed and full of the Holy Spirit. If you knew Jesse you knew that he embodied a true Christian life.

“ The last time I saw Jesse I was giving him a hug goodbye. He was going home from work. Jesse was such a servant for Christ. I have never heard him talk ugly about anyone and he was always kind. He will be missed.

“ Jesse was like a father to me. So kind, loving, and dedicated to serving God. Family was so important to him, he always made my Wife and I a part of his. He taught me how to be a loving husband, showed me what a hard days work really was, and how to live the country life the right way. I will never forget the first time I met him, nor will I forget our last conversations. Jesse was a tough, get it done, provider and loving husband. He often pondered about Gods creation many a night on the back porch, and now I know he is getting to ask God all those many questions. He was a Godly man that would stand up for you in a minute, take care of you in a time of need, or push and encourage you with life-long wisdom. He always believed in me and I knew that he meant every word he said. I am so thankful for everything that he taught us and we will one day tell our children of the great God-fearing man Grandpa Jesse was. Your stories and wisdom will live on as you pass into a better place. We will miss you every day until we meet again.

“ Jesse was a great friend, advisor and coworker. We had many good times sharing the basement of the Region 1 office with the late Jo Padgett. I learned a LOT about TDCJ from this man. He was very honorable and always loved going home to his bride Velma. I will cherish his old fashion talks about making things out of wooden tools, being a craftsman, and beekeeping. May he rest in peace. I'll keep his family and friends in my prayers during this time of his life celebration.

“ I was so saddened to hear about my dear friend Jesse. I know your with Jesus now. Jesse used to come to visit the office when he was at the BOT. We used to have some good talks and I'll carry that with me always. He was so smart. Thanks for the laughs Jesse. He was one of the nicest people I knew. He was a hard worker and would help anyone. He talked so highly of his wife Velma. He loved and adored her so much. I'll miss you Jesse. Until we meet again....

“ Jesse and I were good friends growing up in Crabbs Prairie. Spent our free time riding bikes, swimming, camping together. Up until High School we were always together. Our moms always had coffee together when we got together to play. We only lived about a half mile apart as kids. Lost touch after our 10 year school gathering but knew wherever he was he was doing good things. I'll miss that gentle giant.
