“ Praying for friends and family. I regret that Jessica and my paths have never crossed. That I am aware of. This young lady was truly a beautiful young lady and a very special gift from God. I have heard and seen posted the most special things she has done and the way people, and friends spoke of her, beautiful infectious smile, caring ways, and most importantly love for God. We are only on this earth for a little while. We all have work to do while we are here. Some special people just get theirs done at earlier age, and a little faster. God has a plan and we have to believe that his plan is far more beautiful than ours. Jessica will be waiting in heaven where there is no more pain no more sorrow. Waiting for those to join her that to know Jesus. This young lady's life has touched me in so many ways. I will continue to pray for the family for weeks to come. Hope it helps the family in some small way to know that the community loves you.

“ We all make plans. I planned to recognize Jessica for her perseverance in hanging in and relearning part after part for One Act Play this year at the upcoming awards event. I planned to give her a big graduation hug in three more years, and we all planned to see her succeed and someday return to Richards HS from college, because she was such an excellent student with all sorts of prospects. But, God clearly has other plans for Jessica. And, though we are heart-broken by loss, we can all celebrate the kindness of her spirit, the warmth of her smile, and the love of life she shared with all who knew her. Though she was with us but a short time, Jessica had a positive impact on all who knew her and will continue to inspire and influence the plans of the many who love her.
