“ Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, but love leaves a memory no one can steal. Hold on the love. When I think of Jessica, my mind flashes back to the cute, bubbly, little girl sitting in my car on rainy days waiting for the school bus. Our hopes, thoughts & prayers are with you and Josh today & the days to come.

“ She's was always the person to help someone get out of their shell, always knew how to make the best of every situation, and always the one to talk to especially about something heartfelt and important. Prayers go out to her family, I give you my condolences, and I'll pay my respects to her as soon as possible. She will always be with one another in spirit and in heart. Every since I got news of her passing, I'm making it my goal to straighten up my life just for her.

“ I didn't have many friends in school, and Jessica was one of the first people I became good friends with in high school and had a great friendship since. She was truly an amazing person who had no problem lighting up a room just with her presence. Rest easy homie, may we meet again one day

“ Jessica was always sweet to me and went out of her way to compliment me and she had the ability to make others feel better about themselves. I've known her since she was 7 years old and watched her grow up and I'm blessed to have been their for her Baptism. You will be missed greatly Jessica fly among the Angels in Heaven.
