

Jimmie Bob Brooks

March 25, 1925 - June 6, 2015

Jimmie Bob Hightower Brooks “Babba” of Huntsville passed away June 6, 2015. She was born March 25, 1925, to James Drury Hightower and Ella Cline in Huntsville.

Babba was preceded in death by her best friend and husband Edward Lee Brooks, daughter Peggy Ann, and sister Cora Graefe. She is survived by her son James Edward Brooks and wife Pat, of Spring, her granddaughters Kelley White and husband Glinn of Kerrville, Stacy Ely and husband Brad of Hearne, Jody Smith and husband Lyle of Bedias, her great grandchildren Tres and Travis White, Ally and Luke Ely, and Paige, Ansley, Will and Walker Smith. She is also survived by her niece Tracy Lyn Kadlecek and husband Shawn of Hitchcock and their children Shelby, Reese, and Colby.

Babba was happiest enjoying her family and friends near Riverside, at a little place on the river she and her husband found over 40 years ago. Their love of fishing and making many memories with grandkids and great-grandkids will be cherished by all. Babba was a lifelong supporter of the Walker County Fair and enjoyed helping many kids with all of their projects and loved that she had once earned the nickname ‘The Chicken Lady’ by the Poultry Club. She devoted her entire life to her family – she rarely missed a horse show, rodeo, or sports event. Her good stories, humor, and gracious heart will be missed by all that knew, loved, and respected her.

A graveside funeral service will be held Wednesday, June 10, 2015 at 10:00 AM in Adickes Addition of Oakwood Cemetery in Huntsville. Those wishing to “ James Edward, Kelley, Stacy, Jody and Families,

We are so saddened to hear of Jimmie Bob passing away. Our hearts and prayers are with all of you. She was such a special Lady. My mother loved her dearly. Cherish all the wonderful memories of her and keep them in your hearts. So happy that Margaret, Mary and I were able to celebrate her 90th birthday with her as well as all the other family members. We love you all.
