“ *John, Keith, Darinda & Families,
Jimmie Lee was one of the dearest friends I ever had. I never stopped missing her. Though we hadn't seen each other in years, one telephone conversation made it seem it was only yesterday. One of the things I love about her the most was we shared the two most important things in our lives, our Lord and Savior, first and foremost and our children. I want the three of you to know, you, next to God were her life. I love you because she loved you with all her heart. I loved your mother and she is now beholding the One she loved most of all. Carry on her legacy.*

“ Worked with your mom at Orange Memorial and have loved her from day one. Always depended on Connie Ann to keep me up with what she was up to. I have found out that Life is but a loan a very special gift from God, given to us for a while by His prescious love. And although that life is gone, the memories will remain. Just another gift from God to help us ease the pain. What I realized when I lost my mom is now she can see everything I do and I am way more care ful now. Love and prayers to you all, Cherry.
