“ May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss.... I have learned never to underestimate the healing power we all have. It is always there to be used for the highest good. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. (Matthew 5:4) May it be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5

“ To JL's Sons:

Your mother spoke with pride each time she mentioned either of you and she was so proud of your accomplishments. She was truly an angel on this earth, putting her needs aside to always help and be there for others. Never once did she complain, but instead was always helping others in need. She was and always will be a part of our family. Many could take lessons of life from hers. She will be sadly missed; however, the way she lived and touched so many lives will bring a smile to our hearts.

Bless you both.

“ Jimmie, my sweet friend, how I will miss your quick witt, honest observations about people, politics & life, but most of all, your gentle spirit. You faced every challenge in your life with determination, grace & "a little giggle". You never let "life's hardships" leave you bitter, only better! You helped me raise my children, following their daddy's death & we couldn't have made it without you as our babysitter. They were just the first of many young children in our community that you carried around on your hip. You were known by other names, such as: Jimma, Miss Jimmie & Bee. And even though you sometimes carried a belt, noone can recall you using it. You handled every situation with patience. Maybe that's why you were such a good Lotto Player! As you made this final journey, I hope the sound of Louvertta's beautiful singing helped you find your way home. Rest Well, My Dear Jimmie. I will miss you!!
