“ My thoughts and prayers are with you. I don't get to Dodge that often. When I do go and turn off of 405 on to Paul Dixon Road my thoughts always go back to a time when there was no worry for us when we were kids. I see Lee on his YZ 80 ( Yamaha motorcycle ) tearing up the dirt road. And as always I was behind him eating his dust ! I am so glad that I had the honor to know and be his friend. He will be deeply missed BUT not forgotten ! Love, Eddy Allen, Dallas, Texas

“ MaChere, I was deeply saddened at this news. Mom just sent me the newspaper article. I so miss you and wanted to send a message to tell you that you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers! Although I didn't him personally, He was blessed to have you as a Mom! God Bless you and I'll be sending prayers your way....send an email when things settle for you! Remember that even though this is a difficult time, God never gives us more than we can handle! Hugs from Arizona!

“ Alex, Machere and family, just wanted to express our sincere condolences to all of you. While I know you will miss Lee here on Earth, what a joyous feeling to know that your separation is only brief and you will soon be reunited. I was thinking today what Lee must be seeing now! And you can bet he is sitting at our Lord's feet and receiving all the rewards he deserves. We love you and will be here for you.

“ Because I have not spent much time in Dodge in a very long time, I have lost touch with most people there and don't know a lot about Lee. What I do know is that I heard him speak at the service of a friend who had passed away a few years back. He spoke from the heart and gave a tribute to someone who clearly meant a lot to him. While most men feel they have to put on a strong face and get thru such a speech without showing their emotion, Lee spoke with Love and total vulnerability about someone who he had known and loved as a friend for many years. He seemed to be a person with a big heart, and we can never have too many people like that. I just want his family to know he had an impact on me that day.

“ That Picture of Lee is perfect. He was always smiling and laughing. He always show others the love of Christ by his sweet loving nature. We will be missing his joy and laughter. Our thoughts and prayers are with the whole family. And we feel very blessed that he was in our lives even for a short period. Love Wade and Terry
