“ To the Family of Mike Barnes, You have been in my thoughts and prayers and I apologize for being late with this. Mike and I worked together many years ago, wiring the Walker County Courthouse after the old courthouse burned. Mike went on to pursue the trade and I sometimes wonder where I went. Those were good times! God Bless

“ I am shocked to hear of Mike's passing. I worked with Mike at Schultz Electric for years when I was in the early 70's. Mike taught me so much about electrical work. I considered him a great friend even though we have not talked in almost 30 years.

I remember helping Mike build a chopper in his living room...

My thoughts and prayers are with the family.

“ To Mike's family:
There are not many men that have impacted my life like Mike, a man who loved the Lord and was quick not to judge but to love with the love of Christ. I rejoice knowing that Mike is in the presence of the Most High God and experiencing the personal presence and love of our Lord Jesus Christ; what a reward for Mike!

“ A Poem for Mike's Family

*Baddest biker man I ever met.
Tough facade but something yet made me take a look within,
made me see a man that in all the things he lived and loved were real, and focused and from above.
His wife, his sons, his love of The Lord showed in his deeds, his thoughts, and his word.
He lived his life for others he knew.
He gave himself to serve "the crew"
who know him well and loved him long.
He would even break out in song
to show his friends his love and thoughts,
the things that with money cannot be bought.
He touched us all through good times and bad,
and through it all the times he had were happy and full and loving and rich.
We'll miss him bad and, son of a bitch,
he left too soon to suit us all.
He's in heaven now and having a ball.
I prayed with him for his family and wife.
I cried with him as he contemplated his life.
We talked with Jesus and thanked Him for His grace.
Mike said "I just want to feel the wind in my face".
His time on earth now is gone,
his eternal life in heaven has just begun.
Rejoice my friends, behind your tears.
Your brother has left us, beyond his years,
to be with The Son, The Master, The King,
the one who loves us more than anything.
Mike stands in His Glory to worship and bow.
His only prayer for us is now
to join him in this heavenly place, surrounded by love and glory and grace.*

So rejoice in The Lord and praise Him on high, for we can join Mike in the sweet bye and bye.

We love you and we are praying for you and your family.
