“ Poppa Joe I'm going to miss you everyday. But I can't help to be thankful for god giving us another 23 years with you. I just can't imagine my life growing up if you had passed when I was 5. I have so many memories of us while growing up, I wouldn't trade then, or the time we had together for anything in this world. Until I see you again, I love you poppa Joe!

“ to the family of Joe Farrell. May God Bless each and everyone of you for your loss. Hold your memories close and never forget his smile. I will always remember is smile. Joe painted our home one year, and our front door "RED",(after we finally found the color I liked), long story. Joe re-did both of our showers in our bathrooms. yes, he made a big mess. He, just smiled, had to. But in the end,,, I was Happy!! Some how Joe,,,,, still, had a smile on his face. Like his daughter said, there was no project Joe could not do! And DO HE DID!! with a smile on his face!!! Both Mike and I have been Blessed to have know Joe! R.I.P.
