

Joe Wesolick

April 25, 1917 - November 25, 2006

Joe Wesolick was born April 25, 1917 in Richards, Texas to Joe and Olphia (Kroll) Wesolick and he passed away November 21, 2006 at his home in New Waverly. Joe loved raising his cattle, fishing and hunting and his dogs and coon hunting. He also enjoyed tending his garden and his fruit trees as long as his health allowed him to get out and work. He worked at the National Biscuit Company in Houston until he and his wife Sophie moved to New Waverly. The St. Joseph Catholic Church was a very important part of their lives as they were both long time members. They helped to restore the historical St. Joseph Catholic Church and contributed the funds to build the new Chapel which will be dedicated in their honor this Sunday. A Wake will be conducted by Deacon Klauss Friday, November 24, 2006 starting at 7 PM and a Rosary will follow to be lead by James and Margaret Mature. The Mass of Christian Burial will be held Saturday November 25, 2006 at 10 AM at St. Joseph Catholic Church with Rev. Boakim Nguyen officiating. Interment will follow at Elmina Cemetery under the direction of Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home. Serving as pallbearers are: Joshua Slott, Jacob Slott, Billy Busa, Raymond Belinowski, Darrell Novark and Jason Tafelski. He was preceded in death by his wife Sophie of 48 years, his parents and twelve brothers and sisters. Mr. Wesolick is survived by many nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.
