“ I am heartbroken. David and I had been co-workers, somewhat partners in crime at work, just as he started law school. He was so intelligent, talented and witty. Just heartbroken. My heart goes out to his family and friends.

“ I stumbled across this terrible news about David just now, 18 days later. David was my best friend's partner. (My best friend passed away last year.) He was such a nice guy. Extremely talented. He taught me how to tune pianos. I'm so shocked to hear about this. I'm sorry and deeply saddened.
