“ I have so many stories I could share, but that was another time when we did really dumb teenage stuff. You were always an awesome friend, and I will always fondly remember the memories, but most of all the private talks we had. I am glad in these last several years that life came together for you. I know we have spoken off and on about getting our kids together to visit and us catching up. I am sorry it never happened. First Mike, then Amber, and now you...all gone way to early, and in such heartbreaking ways. I'm thankful your at peace now, and my prayers are with your family, wife, & children.

“ I knew Cody and his sisters as just little kids. I remember him being a little chubby boy but a fun kid. His mom Karol and dad John were in tge fire department with me and invited me to their home for dinner one night. She made spaghetti and I grew up eating homemade spaghetti and would always make a spaghetti "sandwich". I only used 1 slice of bread folded in half. Sometime later Karolin had toldme how Cody started eating spaghetti sandwiches,Karol and I both laughed really good. Cody I wish I had gotten to see you grow up to be the man you are, it's heartbreaking at the very least to know you are not here anymore, but I know you are in no more pain. Karol, John, Jennifer, Kara, Codys wife and in laws, my deepest most sincere condolences to you all. I am at a loss for words.

Cancer is work of the Devil i know my dad would not have left me or my brother if he had the choice God loves us too much to harm us with a sickness like that so every one needs to remember that I think all the people out there committing suicide should think twice because there are other people in the world dying and they don't have a choice so know that you have a choice as of right now.

My deepest sympathy to the Conley family. Cody is in such a much better place and we will all be with him and all our loved ones one day. Karol I know how hard this must be - but you are a very strong woman and God will be there to carry you through this storm as he has so many times before. Keep the Faith and God Bless.
