“ Treasure the memories of John and Lois. One summer there happened to be three brothers together in Winston-Salem, NC. John Culver, William Lewis. and Dick Saunders batched in a small room the in the yard of Lee and Leona Rash. They held gospel meetings in a tent in the area. Often saw them reading and writing letters around the picnic table. Many memories of John and Lois in N.C. conventions.

“ We have sweet memories of John while he was in our field in Texas. He always had a smile for all he greeted and met with. It was obvious through his words and kind example that he loved people and cared for their souls. It warmed our hearts to hear that after he moved to Pecan Grove that he could be found fishing at the pond there most days.
Though he will be greatly missed, we know he ran the race with patience and finished his course faithfully.

“ John was in my home in Plano Tx. a great deal and I always enjoyed his kind spirit and quick wit. We saw him at Pecan Grove in July and even thought he wasn't well that spirit and wit was still there. I'll miss him telling me I look pregnant and old as a common greeting when he would see me. We will miss John but I'm glad his race is over and he can rest now.

“ We are with you all during this time of separation of our brother, John. Lois Culver was on the Illinois staff when I was teaching in Illinois at Highland College in Freeport a couple years before I began in the Work there in 1969. Lois and I were on the same staff during most of my 14 years in Illinois before going to Mexico in 1982. While in Illinois, Lois' sisters came to visit so little by little I became acquainted with them and then later when returning to the USA for conventions or during a home visit I met and was around John; in later years when returning for some Texas conventions. He was a friend of mine perhaps because of my knowing Lois so well during preps, special meetings and conventions together those 14 years. The last I saw John and Lois was when I went for Raymond Reece's funeral at Pecan Grove. My condolences go to Lois and the family, we have the comfort to know that John finished and died in the faith, a victory. The faith of others can help us and encourage us but only our own faith can save us. Our thoughts go to you and our prayers go up for you. May the God of al comfort draw near.
Your brother, Alan Anderson presently in Guatamala

“ I met John at Clever Convention, 1976. He was there when I professed in 1979. He spent time in our home through the years as we raised our three daughters. Always a quiet, gentle man. He was very special to us all will remain in our hearts. To Lois and family, we know our God in Heaven will comfort and strengthen you through your days of sorrow and will continue to bring peace and comfort through all our remaining years! -- Mike and Kathy Keithley (Emily Kammerer, LeAnn Keithley, & Jessica Keithley Webb)

“ In late 1960s John appeared at Clara Perkins door in Singer La., to help me paint her little retirement home. After a hard days work I took him to Ma Jerrals to prepare for a small gospel tent mtg.. He was on the porch covered in paint and reading his bible as I came running back for help to fix a flat tire...more work and so weary. He asked me, at the mtg, to please play the organ. I refused 3 times because I didnt know how to play. Still dont but I can sing his praises. God and His servants give and give and forgive, while we get and get and forget. Thank you John, our friend and His. Al and Diane Perkins

We never met John before he became a resident of Pecan Grove. We feel blessed to have gotten to know him there and he quickly became one of our favorites! The first time we met him, he drove us all around the grounds in his golf cart. I think he enjoyed it as much as we did. Glad for our last visit with him in March, just happened to be there for his 94th birthday. He enjoyed sharing his birthday cake with us, then we had such a lovely visit with him that we'll always treasure! SO thankful he slipped away so peacefully. RIP, dear John. Sharon & Gary Nordic
