

John F. Davies

May 17, 1938 - December 22, 2015

John F. Davies, 77, passed away on December 22, 2015 in Huntsville, TX. Born in London, England, the son of Robert and Ivy Davies.

John became a U.S. Citizen in November, 1961. He attended two semesters at Ohio State University before joining the Army Reserve. He married Rissie, his best friend and love of his life, sharing 40 years of marriage. As a senior design engineer, he and Rissie were able to travel around the United States and Europe.

In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by his twin brother, Michael Davies. Surviving, in addition to his wife, Rissie (Landry) Davies; his daughters, Brigitte Peres of Dallas, TX; Donna Ross and husband Ricky of Huntsville, TX; Brenda Davies of Washington, D.C.; his son, Michael Murphy, Jr. and wife Regina of Tomball, TX; five grandchildren, Randi Long and husband Ross of Huntsville, TX; John Peres, IV of The Woodlands, TX; Travis Ross of Houston, TX; Rachel and Faith Murphy of Tomball, TX; and one great granddaughter, Ryan Long.

John was a blessing to his family and everyone he met. He never met a stranger anywhere they travelled. He was an inspiration to all; always having time for family and friends. He loved to cook and entertain; watch golf and football; read and oil paint. He retired to Huntsville, TX to be close to the family he loved dearly.
