“ Rebecca and the Harvey family...My deepest sympathy to all of you. John's passing is a huge loss for so many of us. John was a great friend and so talented. He was the best scripter in all of Second Life. He'd always say..yes, I can make that script. He was one of my best friends and I will always miss him. I will treasure his memory always. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ I am really sorry to hear about John. I lost my only brother in late January. Now I am the only child. It's been almost eight months since his death but it is still very hard for my family, and I. Your family will be in my thoughts, and prayers. Your family needs each other the most right now. I wish the best for you guys.

“ The words written here speak not of a stranger, but of a "love" chosen long ago in the name JOHN. We are never ready to give back loved ones who belong to us for only a little while. And, your John was definitely a keeper! Understanding is still a reach away from all of us right now trying to grasp the young seed of life who had so much more to give through those unborn dreams. May God give you the strength to give him back and heal in the stillness of this loss.

I am deeply saddened by your loss. Some of the most enjoyable memories I have of working with you were listening to your stories about your life and antics with your husband. I could tell you loved each other a great deal by the way you talked about him and how your eyes would light up whenever you mentioned him.

You and your family are in my thoughts. Take care.

“ It hurts terribly to lose someone like John. He was one of a close knit group and I can feel the piece missing. He was a good man, gentle and kind. Always doing silly things and giggling with his unique laugh. The last time I saw him, he was doing his "karate chop" dance. If you've ever seen John dance you know what I mean. :)

Becca, I know how much you loved him through thick and thin. My heart is breaking for you. Life and love are never perfect but you two had something special. I'm always here anytime you need ANYTHING.

“ I never had the pleasure of meeting John, but I have known Marian for the past five years and I have always found her to be an awesome individual. Right now when your loss is so fresh, it may be difficult for you to imagine that this pain will ever go away. But in time, the BLESSINGS OF GOD'S UNFAILING GRACE will soften the hurt that you all are feeling and bring your hearts the peace, comfort and hope that it needs to heal. Until then please remember that there is a circle of friends surrounding you and yours who are embracing you all and lifting you all up in prayer. May GOD'S arms wrap you all up and give you all the strength you all need during this most difficult time. GOD BLESS YOU ALL and our prayers and thoughts are with you all!

“ To John, Becca, and their parents...I only met Becca once but she seemed upbeat and liked to smile. I am sorry for your loss Becca, I dated John for a short while and we hung out with the same group of friends for years. John made everyone laugh, and loved to be with his friends. I remember a few inspiring things he said to me that I realize he was right about. My apologies that I cannot attend the service but know he will always be remembered fondly for the friend and person he was. God bless you all...
