“ I knew John for a long time but we weren't really close until middle school and only got closer during high school and college. He tried to teach me how to skateboard and how to dance because I was terrible at both but, John didn't care. He called me Carl because of a video he saw on Youtube which both irritated me but made me laugh. Sometimes, after long days in college, we would go to a parking lot or field, lie down, and look at the stars and talk about anything and everything. I have so many good memories of him and am devastated and shocked at his passing. What a wonderful and beautiful person this world has lost. Prayers for his family and friends.

“ I didn't get a chance to get to know John well but I remember his prayers for us in AL meetings. I remember his attempts to organize rides and build us into a band of brothers. He took on a lot of responsibility for such a young man. God be with you my friend, may the Lord bring you from darkness to light and let you continue in your benevolent ways.

“ I didn't get to know John as well as I could have. I wish I'd taken the time during his pledgeship, but I was focused on getting myself graduated. He was sweet from all I could tell and I'm very sorry for the loss his family has had.

“ John was a very outgoing and fun person to be around. He didn't care who you were, what you looked like, or anything like that. He always brought a smile to someone's face with out even trying <3 :) I will always remember him as this person and I will forever cherish those happy moments shared together. R.I.P JOHN you are forever loved. John 14:1-4

“ unfailingly polite, well mannered and respectful of others feelings, he was a fine young man and he will be missed. The world is just a little dimmer for the loss of his light. I thank his parents for raising him to be the fine young man I knew. His loss comes as a shock and a reminder to us all that we never know what lies around the corner of our lives..Live life to it's fullest while being mindful of the people who surround you ..for none of us lasts forever. I am very glad for the Hug we exchanged every time we met or parted (I'm a "Hugger") especially the last one , His was a warm and generous heart, as I said before ..He will be missed.
