“ Dear Barbara and Leontine,

I will miss Uncle John greatly. I have such fond and wonderful childhood memories of my Godfather and Uncle. I year ago I found the necklace I thought I lost that he gave me for my confirmation and it made me realize how much I missed ya'll. I am greatly sorry that so much time passed and I miss out on his and your lives. I send my prayers to heaven for him and you both in this time of need. Yes, I will be making a donation with my next paycheck in his name. I love you both very much and miss you. I know that it does not dim the lose but he is much happier now and in less pain. Please accept my love and wish I could come, but work and illness keeps me away.

*Sending you constant prayers.
Your niece and cousin,
Michelle Lynn Browne*

“ John, our recent re-connection was so very dear to my heart and sure wish you and my brother could have done the same! Time is always too short, but the good thing is, you now have eternity and will be waiting on the other side for us! Thank you for being a dear family friend and awesome man! Love and blessings to the Martin family!
